

REBAR COLD ROLLING MILL

In many developing countries cold forming of rebars is a convenient and cost effective solution. Wire rods of relevant diameters are rolled under rolling cassettes to create the ribs under normal temperature. NivéSal has one of the best solutions for this project providing accurate and fast production of rebars with very reliable and long lasting equipment.